

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am extremely concerned and opposed to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. This impending action by Sinclair would be a tragic and flagrant example.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

I will be notifying my Congressman, Marty Meehan, of my concerns and trust that you will heed our concerns and keep illegal electioneering off of the airwaves.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
Sara Molyneaux
